

2019 CIRCUIT FINALS RODEO

GROUND RULES

Membership & Eligibility

1. Contestant members should refer to PRCA Rule B14.3-B14.3.1.
 - a. A CPRA member who is a resident of Canada will be eligible to participate in the Maple Leaf Circuit Finals Rodeo for the 2019 dues paying year providing such member meets the Required Participation Rodeo Rule as outlined in B9.4.5.4.1 in the 2019 PRCA Rulebook. WPRA members, refer to rules 8.4-8.5 and 8.8.2 of the WPRA rulebook.
2. Should a contestant qualify for the RNCFR or NCF SR, contestant must renew their current year membership by the RNCFR/NCF SR member dues deadline as listed in the PRCA Business Journal or WPRN. As such, if a contract personnel member is selected to work the RNCFR or NCF SR, they must renew their membership prior to the start of either event.

Entries & Substitutions

1. Official Entry Rodeo:
 - a. Money won at 2019 Maple Leaf Circuit Finals will count towards 2020 CPRA standings but will not count for world standings.
 - b. Positions will be filled per B9.4.5 (WPRA 8.8.1)
 - c. If a contestant has not met the required participation requirements, per PRCA rule B9.4.5.3 (WPRA rule 8.8.3.1):
 - i. No year-end awards or advancement to RNCFR or NCF SR.
2. All contestants must make an official entry through CRES prior to entry closing time.
3. Qualification Cut-off:
 - a. Qualification cut-off will be September 30, 2019
4. Team Roping:
 - a. Top qualifying headers who satisfy the Required Participation Rule must rope with the top qualifying heelers who satisfy the Required Participation Rule at the Circuit Finals Rodeo.
 - b. If a team member enters the Circuit Finals Rodeo and has not satisfied the Required Participation Rule or does not qualify due to the order of his ranking, after entries close, that team member will be drawn out and the next qualifier in order of the standings who enters the Circuit Finals Rodeo will be added.

- c. Teams who wish to compete at the Circuit Finals Rodeo must enter together through CRES.
 - d. If a team member has roped as a header and a heeler during the rodeo year, his count will be combined but his money will remain separate.
5. Entries to Fill Open Position(s):
- a. There will be an established re-entry period for any open positions.
 - i. Positions will be filled in accordance with B9.4.5.
 - ii. Re-entry contestants will not displace any originally entered contestant regardless of money won or participation requirements.
 - b. Entries to fill open position(s) after re-entries may be accepted by CRES.
 - i. Step one, in order of Required Participation Rodeo Rule with money won from those who had not entered.
 - ii. Step two, by contestants who did not meet the Required Participation Rodeo Rule with money won from those who had not entered.
 - c. Contestant entries accepted by the CRES must be financially eligible and in good standings at the time of entry closing to be eligible to fill open position(s).
 - d. 2nd/Dual entries will not be accepted for any Circuit Finals Rodeo
6. Substitutions:
- a. Prior to the First go-round, a substitute entry will be allowed.
 - b. Substitutes will be the highest ranked eligible contestants available who have made an official entry through CRES.
 - c. CRES will contact highest ranked eligible contestant who entered. Rodeo secretary will only recognize CRES making substitute entry.
 - d. Team roping substitutions:
 - i. Any team entered in the team roping event at the Circuit Finals Rodeo suffering disabling injury or illness to either partner during the time period of the Circuit Finals Rodeo may be allowed to continue roping with a substitute partner chosen from among the following options: (i) the non-injured/non-ill partner (the “original partner”) may choose to add the next highest ranked contestant who is not already participating in the Circuit Finals Rodeo team roping and who has not declined to participate in the Circuit Finals Rodeo team roping due to injury or illness, who is in the same category of competitors as the injured or ill partner (i.e., header or heeler), who is Financially Eligible and Competition Eligible, and has satisfied the requirements of the Required Participation Rule and who has confirmed entry in the Circuit Finals Rodeo; or (ii) any contestant entered in the Circuit Finals Rodeo but not already competing in team roping.

- ii. If the next highest ranked individual who qualifies under option (i) is not available or is unwilling to participate, the original partner must choose a replacement from category (ii). If the original partner chooses the next highest ranked header or heeler under option (i) above and that substitute partner is willing to participate but is unable to arrive in time for the next scheduled performance, the original partner may turn out of the next scheduled performance.
 - iii. If the original partner chooses a replacement partner under option (i), the replacement partner shall be eligible to win the Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion in the team roping header or heeler category but shall not be eligible for All-Around points. If the original partner chooses a replacement partner under option (ii), the replacement partner will not be eligible for the team roping Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion, nor will the replacement partner’s points earned in the team roping apply to the All-Around Standings.
 - iv. Regardless of whether the replacement partner comes from category (i) or (ii), the newly formed team will be eligible for go-round money, but will only be eligible for the average pay-off if this newly formed team competes in all go-rounds. The original member of the newly formed team will be eligible for the team roping Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship, and points won will be applied to the All-Around Standings for the original partner if he meets the criteria outlined in Bylaw B13.2 and other applicable sections of the PRCA Rulebook.
 - v. Once a substitute has competed, the original team cannot be reformed.
- e. If not enough eligible contestants enter, then CRES will contact highest ranked eligible contestant according to Circuit standings.

- f. Substitute entry will take the original position of the contestant being replaced.
