

CANADIAN PROFESSIONAL RODEO ASSOCIATION

Committee Person of the Year Award

Nominations are now being accepted for the "2019 Committee Person of the Year". The qualifications and categories for judging are listed below:

Qualifications

The committee person you are nominating must:

- A. not be a paid position
- B. have been with the rodeo committee for a minimum of five (5) consecutive years
- C. not have any relation to the person nominating them
- D. be selected and endorsed by an associated committee or CPRA member.

Categories - the categories set out are defined as follows:

- a. Contribution as a Rodeo committee member
  - i. Have they gone above and beyond what is normally required of a committee person?
- b. Contributions to the betterment of rodeo (i.e. in what ways have they worked to improve rodeo):
  - i. Have they had constructive suggestions for the improvement of the sport, and carried through on these?
  - ii. Have they consistently had the interests of their rodeo and the CPRA as a priority? Seeking new ways to get exposure for rodeo, and helping new fans?
  - iii. Have they, in short, extended themselves for the good of rodeo, without consideration of immediate rewards or gain?
- c. Personality
  - i. Are they friendly, co-operative and open with all, be they young or veteran, other rodeo committees, the press or rodeo fans?
- d. Appearance
  - i. Do they add to rather than detract from the production of a rodeo?

Written nominations for the 2019 Committee Person of the Year should be as detailed as possible, establishing how the candidate has contributed to the sport of rodeo, with consideration of the categories described above. Only those candidates for whom a written nomination has been received shall be considered by the selection committee.

Nominations must be received by the C.P.R.A. no later than October 14, 2019 at 4pm MST by email to Patty Auger, Business Administrator at vote@rodeocanada.com
