5.03 Eligibility

A Director must be a Regular Member in Good Standing and a Canadian citizen. Any person representing or in the employ of a major sponsor of the Association is ineligible to sit on the Executive or to be an Officer of the Association. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

CPRA Rule Book

5.04 Event Representative Committee

The Executive shall form a committee, to be known as the "Event Representative Committee", consisting of a representative from each major event elected by the Members who compete in that event, with such duties and powers as may be determined by the Executive. The procedure for nomination and election of the members of the Event Representative Committee shall be the same as for election of Directors as set forth in By-Laws 5.05 and 7.01 hereof. The election of the Event Representative Committee will be conducted in such a way that the term of office of timed event representatives and riding event representatives will be staggered.

CPRA Rule Book

5.05 Election and Nomination

Unless it is otherwise determined at an Annual or Special General Meeting of the Association, in addition to the President, eight (8) Directors shall be elected or appointed to the Executive in the following manner and by the following persons:

- (a) two (2) Contestant Directors representing timed events appointed by the Event Representative Committee;
- (b) two (2) Contestant Directors representing riding events appointed by the Event Representative Committee;
- (c) two (2) Stock Contractor Directors, one (1) elected by all Regular Members and one (1) elected by the Stock Contractor Members only; and
- (d) two (2) Rodeo Committee Directors elected by all Association Rodeo Committees holding an Approved Rodeo during the Rodeo Season in which the election takes place with each Rodeo Committee having one (1) vote.

The Directors from each category referred to above shall serve staggered terms of office. At least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the Canadian Finals Rodeo of each year, the Secretary shall provide notice to the Members of the Directors to be elected and a nomination form by ordinary post. Nominations for the office of Director shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary of the Association by 12:00 noon on the last day of the Canadian Finals Rodeo. The election of Directors shall be conducted as soon as reasonably possible following the Canadian Finals Rodeo by postal ballot in the manner hereinafter appearing in these By-Laws; provided that it shall not be required that a written description of the matter to be voted on be published in the Canadian Rodeo News as provided in By-Law 7.01.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following conditions shall apply to the nominations for the Executive:

- (a) Only a Member in Good Standing shall be entitled to be nominated as a Director or to nominate a Director.
- (b) A nomination must clearly indicate the Director position to which the nomination relates, be signed by the nominator and be signed by the nominee and endorsed with his consent to act as a Director of the Association.
- (c) Event Contestant Representative
 - (i) a Nomination of a Contestant Member must be signed by three (3) members, one (1) of whom must be an active Contestant Member in the same event as the nominee; or
 - (ii) three (3) members actively competing in the same event as the nominee must sign the nomination of a Contestant Member not actively competing in the event.
- (d) Stock Contractor Directors
 - (i) with regard to the position elected by all Regular Members, the nomination must be signed by two (2) Members, one (1) of whom is a Stock Contractor Member; and
 - (ii) with regard to the position elected by Stock Contractor Members, the nomination must be signed by one (1) Stock Contractor Member.
- (e) Rodeo Committee Directors
 - (i) two (2) Members must sign the nomination, one (1) of which is a Rodeo Committee

Member.

6.02 President

(c) Election and Nomination

At least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the Canadian Finals Rodeo in any year when the President is to be elected, the Secretary shall send a nomination form to each Member by ordinary post. Nominations for the office of President shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary of the Association by 12:00 noon on the last day of the Canadian Finals Rodeo in any year in which the President is to be elected. Only a Member in Good Standing shall be entitled to nominate another Member in Good Standing to hold the office of President of the Association. A nomination must be signed by five (5) Members in Good Standing and have the written consent of the nominee to act as the President of the Association endorsed thereon.

The election of the President shall be conducted as soon as reasonably possible following the Canadian Finals Rodeo by postal ballot in the manner hereinafter appearing in these By Laws; provided that it shall not be required that a written description of the matter to be voted on be published in the Canadian Rodeo News as provided in By-Law 7.01.
