

Guidelines for Special Events
Approved by the CPRA

1. Minimum of $10,000 added per event.
2. Approval fee is 15%.
3. Administration fee as per CPRA rulebook.
4. All contestants must have a valid CPRA membership.
5. Approved Stock Contractor and personnel must be hired as per regular rodeos. CPRA member stock contractor must be named on the approval as the prime stock contractor as per CPRA rulebook.
6. Special events will not be included in rodeo count for season leader/CFR qualifier standings.
7. Special events will count as a trip for stock.
8. Special events do not count towards stock contractors rodeo count to take stock to CFR.
9. Special events will be capped each year. No events will be added until the number of events drops below the capped number for a particular year. The annual capped number will be the greater of:
 - a. 15 special events or
 - b. 20% of the previous year's rodeo count.
10. Money won will count only for that event and will not count towards All-Around or High Point Standings.
11. Entry fees would be set by the CPRA Board of Directors, with all of the fees being paid out in addition to the prize money offered. No stock charge will be assessed to contestants.
12. Pro Officials will judge all approved special events. All related judging costs will be charged to the special event.
13. Any location will not be approved for a special event for a minimum of 3 years should they cancel their rodeo.
14. A gate admission must be charged.
15. Committee status for special event organizers is to be determined by the CPRA Board of Directors.
16. A special event will not be approved if the event conflicts with a CPRA rodeos dates and times to where contestants are unable to make both performances in a day.
17. All special events are subject to the approval of the CPRA Board of Directors.